

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Language: All manuscripts must be written in English.

General: Manuscripts must be prepared in WORD (.doc or .docx). The corresponding author identified in the application form and his/her E-mail address will appear on the top page of each article in the journal.

Abstracts: An abstract not exceeding 200 words and five or less keywords should accompany the manuscript.

Text: Follow the order when preparing manuscripts: title, authors, affiliations, abstract, keywords, main text (including figures and tables), acknowledgements, appendix, and references.

Mathematical expressions: Equation numbers should appear in parentheses on the right-hand side of the equation and should be referred to within the text.

References: The literature references should be brought together at the end of article, and numbered in the order of their appearance. In the text, references should be mentioned in square and superior brackets []. The list of references must be given in the following style:

1. Author name(s), Paper title, Journal name, Volume and number, Page, Year
2. Author name(s), Book title, Publisher, City, Page, Year
3. Editor name(s), ed., Book title, Publisher, City, Page, Year
e.g. C. Brown, M. P. Green, and S. Robinson, Study on Fire, Fire Science and Technology, Vol. 30, No. 1, 1-12, 2011

Abbreviations for the title of journals should be cited according to American Chemical Society:

<http://www.cas.org/support/documentation/references/corejournals>

Illustrations: Photographs, charts and diagrams are all to be referred to as “Figure(s)” and should be numbered with consecutive Arabic numbers in the order to which they are referred. They should be included in the text where they are mentioned and have descriptive captions.

Line drawings: All lettering, graph lines and points on graphs should be sufficiently large and bold to permit reproduction when the diagram has been reduced to a size suitable for inclusion in the journal.

Photographs: Original photographs must be supplied as they are to be reproduced in black and white.

Tables: Tables should be included in the text where they are referred. Tables should be numbered consecutively and given a suitable caption. Footnotes to tables should appear below the table and be referred to by superscript lowercase letters.

Units: The SI system should be used for all scientific and laboratory data; if, in certain instances, it is necessary to quote other units, these should be added in parentheses. Temperatures should be given in degrees Celsius.

PROOFS

Authors will receive proofs for correction which must be returned to editors by due date.
